Gin and Milk. The inventor and, probably, the sole consumer of the above remarkable beverage is the Rev. Charles B. Smythe, a Presbyterian preacher, whose trial, on the charge of absorbing the said mixture, has recently taken place before a reverend body of his peers. From the facts brought forth during this trial, it appears that the Rev. Charles, did, on a certain Sunday morning, in company with two reporters of a "sensation" paper, enter a restaurant and then and there partake of gin and milk. The defence offered was, that he drank it as a medicine. Now this is doubtless a strong point and worthy of consideration, for it seems impossible that any well regulated stomach could have received such a heterodox dose as anything else but medicine. But why should the Rev. gentleman vex his system with so vile an admixture when the Pharmacopela offers so much that is nasty and unpleasant, and why partake thereof in a restaurant, on Sunday, and with reporters of a "sensation" paper? Were these adjuncts necessary to render the dose additionally unpleas ant? Mr. Smythe further states that he did not pay for the refreshing draught, not thinking it right and proper so to do, on the Sabbath. Now this is really very delicate. It was all right to go to the restaurant, step up to the bar and long as he did. drink this beastly combination of uncombinable fluids, which even the reporters aforesaid could not swallow. but it was wrong to pay, afterwards. Oh! Smythe, Smythe, we should fancy you would blush at the sight of juniper berries and weep upon meeting a cow.

The Free Vote in Illinois.

In the Illinois Constitutional Convention, May 4th, 1870, the report of the Committee on Miscellaneous Corporations was considered, when the following important amendment to the Constitution, reported by the committee, was agreed to by a unanimous vote, Remarks in its favor were made by Mr. Medill, Mr. Browning, Mr. Coolbaugh and Mr. Haines of Lake:

"The General Assembly shall provide by law that in all elections for directors or managers of incorporated companies every stockholder shall have the right every stockholder shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, for the number of shares of stock owned by him for as many persons as there are directors or managers to be elected, or to cumulate said shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors or managers multiplied by his number of shares of stock shall equal, or to distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall think fit; and such directors or managers shall not be elected in any other manner after the adoption of this Constitution."

That means reform on an extensive scale in corporate action. Every incorporated company in Illinois is brought under the new plan of voting, thus securing just representation to the stockholders and striking an effectual blow ruption. Thanks to the good men of Illinois for this important step in the course of reform!

Indian Fighting.

In view of the recent hostilities be tween the whites and Indians and the imminent danger of a general war, it is not out of place to properly estimate the fighting qualifications of the red men. It has been stated, as coming 4000 available troops on the plains are fully equal to the 10,000 of their opponents, now in arms. This may be true and would be, doubtless, if a pitched battle were to be fought, but this is not the Indian method of warfare. They scatter and fight at long ranges, carefully avoiding actual collision in bodies, trusting to a harrassing system of night attacks and the cotting off of scouting parties and detached companies rather than a general engagement. It will take much time, trouble and expense, and many lives to subdue 10,000 determined savages, with an unlimited territory to roam over. It is not to be doubted, that the troops would eventually conquer, but the final accomplishment of be a work of days nor one of little moment as many persons seem to imagine. It is always a weak point in an army to begin a war with too contemptible an opinion of the enemy.

Secretary Boutwell.

We do not believe that the people of the United States will, in time to come, look back upon the administration of Mr. Boutwell with anything like a feeling of pride, or assign to him a prominent position amongst financiers. The unanimous opinion on both sides of the Atlantic is, that as a Secretary of the Treasury he is a most decided failure. The reason is, not that Mr. Boutwell is ces, but that he lacks ability and decis ion. The orders issued from the Trens ury in the morning are liable to be modified or recalled by noon, and by this vacillating, and undecided course he has succeeded in destroying all faith in him and frequently in inflicting serious injury to the markets. He is a representative of the class of second rate men appointed by Mr. Grant, whose strongest point is the selection of unfit and incapable politicians to fill important offices. Mr. Boutwell is immeasurably inferior to either Mr. Chase, Mr. Fessenden or Mr. McCulloch, having neither the natural ability, prudence or decision which they possessed.

THE following gentlemen of the Radical persuasion are desirous of being nominated for Governor of this State: General Jno. F. Hartranft, Colonel L. H. Cake, Hon. G. Dawson, General Lemuel Todd, James H. Campbell, Wayne M'Veigh, John Cessna, Thos Campbell, D. J. Morrell, Harry White, W. W. Ketchum, Horace Porter, James L. Graham, Geo. V. Laurence, Elisha made in due time.

The French Election.

The vote on the plebiscitum which took place in France on Sunday last resulted in an overwhelming majority in its favor. The meaning of the word plebiscitum may not be known to some readers and we would say here that it is a law made by the people by direct vote without the intervention of the legslature. The following is the question which was submitted to the vote of the rench people:

Will the people accept the liberal modifications of the constitution of 1852 on the following bases:

1. Responsibility of Ministers in proence of the Chambers. 2. Institution of two Legislative

3. Restoration of the constituent power to the nation.

The majority in its favor will proba bly exceed five millions. Although nominally it purports to be in advocacy of iberal reform, yet its real object is to ecure by a popular vote the national ecceptance of the son of the present Emperor as the next occupant of the throne; in other words to guarantee his title as Napoleon IV. The plebiscitum is so cunningly worded, that those who are opposed to the Government, in voting against it are forced, by so doing, to vote as well against liveral reform. The election passed off quietly, no disturbances having occurred even in disaffected districts. The vote was a large one, exceeding eight millions.

Somewhat Severe.

For fear some of our readers may intend to remove to Cincinnati, we publish the subjoined article, showing what frightful conditions of physical demoralization obtain in that city. One of the citizens having died suddenly, a physician after examination made the following report of the probable cause of death. We wonder that the unfortunate deceased held out as "It is evident, I think, that Mr. W. had a phlegmonous inflammation of the fauces, which involved the tonsils, the adjacent areolar tissue, the soft palate, the epigiottis, and the superior vocal cords. An edematus state of the aryteneepiglottidean folds ensued, arytenoepiglottidean lolus cusued, constituting that condition known as ordena of the glottis. The mode of death was by apnea, a considerable increase in the cifusion suddenly taking place while he was asleep."

Pennsylvania State Sunday School Convention.

The Annual Convention will be held at Harrisburg, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 14, 15, and 16. George H. Stuart, Esq., is expected to preside. Each Sunday-school in the State is requested to send two or more delegates. Pastors and Sunday school workers are also invited to attend and participate. It is requested that the names of those who expect to attend shall be sent to Rev. Thomas H. Robinson, D. D., Chairman, or John M. Sayford, Esq., Secretary, of the local committee of arrangements at Harrisburg, on or before the first day of June, so that places of entertainment may be provided.

Secretaries of county organizations are requested to immediately send their address to the State Secretary, Lewis D. Vail, Esq., 703 Sansom Street, Philadelphia, so as to receive printed details. Where there is no organization, the Secretary wishes to correspond with some earnest Sunday-school worker, and requests that his or her name be forwarded to him.

sylvania Reserve Volunteer Corps, will be held on Tuesday May 17, at Lock Haven. The orator of the day will be Col. Wm. B. Mann, of the 2d Regiment.

Destructive Fire in the Mountains. WHITE HAVEN, Luzerne county, May 4,1870.—Extensive fires have been burning in the mountains around this place for several days. To-day they the defeat and subjugation would not approached the line of the railroad and caused some detention to the trains Those that passed down the Lehigh had to run the gauntlet of flames and dense smoke. The large lumbering establishments of Thos, McKean and Stoddard, Braden & Co. caught fire and are still burning. It is estimated that in each of their piling yards there is 500,000 feet of lumber valued at $20 per thousand. There is no hope of saving any of it. Great fears are entertained that the numerous contiguous mills will be reached by the fire and destroyed. If the flames are not stayed before they reach the mills the whole town of White Haven will be placed in jeopardy. There has been no rain in this locality for some designedly a mismanager of the finan- time, and everything combustible burns like tinder. It is supposed that the fire was started in the leaves and undergrowth of the forests by sparks from a passing locomotive.

Franking. POSTMASTER CRESWELL would be able to reduce letter postage from three to two cents per half ounce if the franking business were abolished. It would manifestly, therefore, be greatly to the advantage of the public if the Senate passed the Bill, which the House sent to it, earrying out the proposed reform. But Senators do not like the idea of paying the postage on their own letters. The bill is to be quietly strangled. The public cannot reasonably expect to enjoy relief at the expense of its self-sacrificing representatives in Congress .-

THE citizens of Helena, Montana, on Monday, proceeded in a very deliberate manner to try two prisoners, A. Le-E. Cochran, Francis Jordan, J. M. compton and James Wilson, who conterm, 1870. fessed the robbery and attempted murder of a citizen on the 27th of April. A committee of twenty-four was named W. Davis, E. Billingfeft, Wilmer to try the case; a verdict was found at back to auditor. Worthington, John Covode and J. W. 2 P. M., and at 4 P. M. the prisoners tree.

Wartial Law in Georgia. Martial law in its most offensive form as been proclaimed in Georgia. The courts, State and Federal, are in full operation there, no insurrection exists, no calls for troops have been made, and yet a mere captain of infautry is now trying a citizen for his life. When the last Georgia bill was under discussion the United States Senate voted down every proposition authorizing the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, and yet now, by mere brute force and violence. without the faintest color of law and without the least pretence of necessity, General Terry, in command of the troops stationed in Georgia, approves the ruffian behaviour of his subordinate, and tells him in so many words: "You will not permit the prisoner to be produced in Court,or admitted to bail, until decision in the premises is rendered at these head-quarters," The writ sued out in behalf of the kidnapped Georgian, has accordingly been denied. On Wednesday, Mr. Beck offered a resolution in the General Grant the authority of this pro- and, finally, with the amendments cedure, whereupon Mr. Shank objects. and the Radical majority, by sustaining that objection, stifles the call. So it has come to this, that the days of the a bill was reported to secure equal Meade domination, when men were put in a sweat-box at Fort Pulaski to torture them into giving evidence against bill was considered until the hour of other men, have returned to Georgia, adjournment. and Congress abets the wrong. It is rumored that Grant thinks the best thing that can be done with the State is to make it a permanent military province. Just as the reconstruction sore is healing, this man, and his backers in the House, tear open the ulcer, infuse into it new venom, and irritate all its pestilent humors anew. More than this; to enter the State of Georgia in time of profound peace, and drag a citizen before a military commission for his life is a direct insult and menace to every one in the United States. It revives the worst days of the "little bell,"and betokens a lawless and ungovernable temper in the administration which threatens, if not checked, to do, at perhaps no very distant day, in Pennsylvania what it now does in the South .- Laneaster Intelligencer, Where's Mercur? A very pertinent enquiry is started, where is Mercur? Is he in attendance at Congress, or is he skulking like so many others? His former friends around here must not badger Ulysses too severely. It will be remembered that Bradford county, Mercur's home, has been noted in the past as a free trade district. It received this name from the steady support it gave to Dave Wilmot, at the time, the most advanced free-trader in the State. Bradford Yankees for free-trade, and Columbia and Montour Radicals for a priation bill. high tariff, places Ulysses in a peculiar position. No wonder he dodges. But he will ultimately straighten up matters. Sometime hence the American will be publishing Mercur's tariff speech, which he never delivered.

> An attempt at this early day to estimate the crop prospects of the year must of necessity prove in many respects unsatisfactory. There is a tendency in the bucolic mind to look at the dark side of the future, and the weather is generally too cold or too warm, too wet or too dry, to entirely meet the farmer's view of fitness. It is safe to allow a large margin for natural despondency. On the whole, so far as our exchanges indicate, the prospects for a good harvest are fair. The cold and open winter did some damage to winter wheat, but to this the heavy snow-storm of March affords a partia corrective, and in all parts of the country over which its protecting mantle was spread the crop will be unusally large. The Indiana papers are less despondent than a week or two ago, and, while some reluctantly concede the probabilities of an average yield, others believe that the harvest will be abun dant. Missouri seems to have suffered more than her neighbors, but even there the prospect is not entirely discouraging. The mails from California speak cheeringly of the wheat crop, though a recent telegraphic despatch would seem to indicate that the continue d drought had effected a very de cided change.
